ORIGINAL C.R.C. SHEET No. 1079-E

RULE AND REGULATION No. 14

SHORTAGE OF SUPPLY AND INTERRUPTION OF DELIVERY

The Company will exercise reasonable diligence and care to furnish and deliver a continuous and sufficient supply of electric energy to the customer, but does not guarantee continuity or sufficiency of supply. The Company will not be liable for interruption or shortage or insufficiency of supply, or any loss or damage of any kind or character occasioned thereby, if same is caused by inevitable accident, act of God, fire, strikes, riots, war, or any other cause except that arising from its failure to exercise reasonable diligence.

The Company, whenever it shall find it necessary for the purpose of making repairs or improvements to its system, will have the right to suspend temporarily the delivery of electric energy, but in all such cases, as reasonable notice thereof as circumstances will permit, will be given to the customers, and the making of such repairs or improvements will be prosecuted as rapidly as may be practicable, and, if practicable, at such times as will cause the least inconvenience to the customers.

In case of shortage of supply and during the period of such shortage, the Company will make such apportionment of its available supply of energy among its customers as shall be ordered or directed from time to time by the Railroad Commission of the State of California, acting either directly or by a power administrator or other official appointed by it for that purpose. In the absence of such order or direction by the Railroad Commission, the Company will, in times of shortage, apportion its available supply of energy among all customers in the most reasonable manner possible.
